PACIFIC NORTHWEST
Marvel at mountain ranges and enjoy the off-beat atmosphere, lighthouses and beautiful wildlife found along the Pacific Northwest Coast! This 10-day tour allows us to experience PNW culture and views for ourselves.

1 // Bothell, WA The great Northwest spreads out to the Pacific ocean, encompassing mountain ranges and off-beat atmosphere, lighthouses and beautiful wildlife. Experience the grand scope of nature and the vibrant culture that exists around America’s western coast. Our adventure begins as we land in Seattle. Enjoy a relaxing dinner and settle into our lodging for the next three nights, just outside the big city.

2 // Bothell, WA Start the morning at the Boeing Future of Flight where 747, 767, 777 and 787 Dreamliners are assembled before service. Learn about Boeing’s Legacy of Innovation and discover what products and services Boeing is currently pursuing! Then, enjoy free time in Seattle’s iconic bustling Pike Place Market, home to the flagship Starbucks and every foodie’s dream. Pick up a Russian piroshki, a fresh French pastry, or some spicy Thai curry. With over 500 food and local craft vendors, you’re sure to find something amazing! See more of the Emerald City this afternoon during a guided city tour, exploring eclectic neighborhoods and famous landmarks. Then rise to the top of the iconic Space Needle for sky-high views, 560 ft. above ground, providing views of downtown Seattle, the Olympic and Cascade Mountains, Mount Rainier and various islands in Puget Sound. Unwind tonight with a group dinner.

3 // Bothell, WA Today board a deluxe two-level boat for a guided whale watching tour through the scenic San Juan Islands. Keep your eyes peeled for orcas, seals, porpoises, sea lions, humpback whales and other Pacific marine wildlife. Sit back and relax during this once-in-a-lifetime cruise on the Salish Sea. A delicious lasagna lunch is served aboard the vessel.

4 // Portland, OR Buckle up for a visit to the historic LeMay Car Museum in Tacoma, which features many rare and valuable automobiles including 1930s classics, NASCAR racecars, and foreign luxury vehicles. Then travel south to the spectacular Mount St. Helens, whose eruption started a cycle of new life that is being preserved, with the amazing landscape providing a combination of scientific exploration and outdoor activity. The Mount St. Helens Johnston Ridge Observatory hosts interpretive displays that tell the biological, geological, and human story of America’s most destructive volcano. A delicious dinner is included tonight.

5 // Bend, OR Begin your day with a leisurely drive along Columbia River Gorge with many exciting stops along the way. Multnomah Falls is the most visited natural recreation site in the Pacific Northwest because of its marvelous beauty year-round. Make sure to snap a photo with this amazing backdrop! Explore the Bonneville Dam Visitor Center and the Bonneville Fish Hatchery. Then, visit the Columbia Gorge Discover Center and Museum, where interactive displays tell the stories of volcanic eruptions and raging ice age floods that shaped the gorge millennium ago.

6 // Redding, CA Cross into The Golden State today. But first, take a trip around the pristine, sapphire blue Crater Lake, the deepest lake in America, which was created by a volcanic mountain collapse. The landscape of this area is truly like none other, with two volcanic rocky islands within the lake, and dense ponderosa pine forests encircling the area. Stop at the visitor center and take a lunch break before continuing into sunny California.

7 // Gold Beach, OR Most people know Redwood Forest National Park as home to the world’s tallest trees, which stretch upwards of 350 feet and are also among the oldest life forms on earth. But the park also protects vast prairies, oak woodlands, wild riverways, and nearly 40 miles of rugged coastline, all supporting a rich mosaic of wildlife diversity. Spend time exploring the most seismically-active region of the country, and take in the terrestrial wonders that won’t be found anywhere else in the world. At the Trees of Mystery, glide through the forest canopy on a gondola ride, walk aerial suspension bridges, or explore trails from the ground. Arrive in Gold Beach and finish the day with a wonderful dinner.

8 // Newport, OR Make a shopping stop at Myrtlewood Factory before an exciting giant dune buggy tour through Oregon’s shifting sand mountains. After lunch, depart for Newport, making stops at sea lion caves. The seemingly bottomless sinkhole known as Thor’s Well and Cape Perpetua Scenic Area also found along the way. Later stroll the bustling Newport Boardwalk, which contains the famous Newport Beach Pier, a historic fish market, and souvenir shops; the area is also the culinary crown of Orange County, with prominent eateries lining the boardwalk.

9 // Olympia, WA Yaquina Head Lighthouse has served as a beacon of the night, guiding ships along the west coast since 1873. After viewing Oregon’s tallest lighthouse, take a self-guided tour of one of America’s favorite dairies, Tillamook Creamery, and enjoy lunch at the Tillamook Cafe. Then, take in the views of Portland during an afternoon sightseeing cruise.

10 // Home Today our Pacific expedition comes to a close, as we fly home from Seattle.
